Mary Greeley Medical Center is the health care provider on which central Iowans depend. They have earned this reputation by bringing together extraordinary people and state-of-the-art facilities in a progressive community.

With a 220-bed regional referral center in Ames, Iowa they serve a 13-county region throughout central Iowa. They provide their patients with the kind of care and services usually found in major metropolitan areas.

Mary Greeley Medical Center is the major healthcare provider in Story County and serves a 13-county region in central Iowa. While the majority of their patients come to us from Story, Boone, Hamilton, Hardin and Marshall counties, they serve Iowans across the state.

Founded in 1916 as a gift from Wallace Greeley to the City of Ames, they have served as a municipal hospital ever since.
