

City of Roanoke Virginia Signs Multi-Suite Lawson Software Contract

Kinsey & Kinsey will implement The City of Roanoke Virginia's Lawson system to help standardize and automate its Human Resources, Payroll, Financial, Procurement and Budgeting operational processes.

Glen Ellyn, Illinois.—February 2009 —Kinsey & Kinsey, Inc. today announced that the City of Roanoke Virginia has licensed the Lawson Financial Management, Procurement and Human Resource suites. The City of Roanoke will use the Lawson applications to help create a single, consolidated financial system and automate administrative processes.

The City of Roanoke has been recognized regionally and nationally for its outstanding quality of life. The National League of Cities named Roanoke an All-America City five times. Only one other city in the United States can make this claim to fame. The city was selected as one of "America's Most Livable Communities" by Partners for Livable Communities, a national, nonprofit organization working to restore and renew communities. Roanoke is a Certified Crime Prevention Community, a one-of-a-kind program of recognition created by the Governor's Partnership Commission for Community Safety.

The City of Roanoke has also been recognized by the Governor of Virginia for its environmental stewardship.
